

|                                                                                   |                                                      |                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
|  | INTEGRATED QUALITY ANDENVIRONMENT POLICY | JULIO2019 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|

Our Customer's satisfaction, the maintenance of our Facilities, the Environment protection, the preservation of the energetic resources are the main areas of intervention in our approach of Prevention and Continuous Improvement.

These principles, which characterize the axes of the Integrated Management System Policy of Fundiciones Río Ebro, are aligned with our general objectives. With the commitment to make its implementation effective through the participation of people, the technical, organizational and economic resources that ensure its application and execution as an IMS Policy within our company.

All this, with the commitment of each one of us to achieve Continuous Improvement in the development of our activities and the application of the IMS Policy of Fundiciones Río Ebro, through the development of:

- To implement a proactive management of the risks associated with the different activities of Fundiciones Río Ebro in relation to Quality and the Environment.
- Increase the performance of our indicators, in all areas of the IMS, with a clear focus on the continuous improvement of related processes.
- To ensure that safe and healthy working conditions are provided for the prevention of injuries and deterioration of the health of all workers at Fundiciones Río Ebro.
- Comply with Legal, Regulatory and Normative requirements, applying best practices in terms of Quality and Environment.
- To develop an effective and transparent Information and Communication System with all the interested parties of Fundiciones Río Ebro. (Employees, Owners, Local Authorities, Environment, Suppliers and Customers).
- Minimize environmental impact through optimizing the consumption of natural and energy resources.

Fundiciones Río Ebro is structured to ensure the achievement of the points described in the Integrated Management Policy, the appropriate assignment of responsibilities and compliance with the requirements of the Integrated Management System Manual.

Fundiciones Río Ebro, S. L.